Virtual Book Discussion

"Shores Beyond Shores: From Holocaust to Hope, My True Story"

Thursday, May 12, 2022
11:00 am EST

Join us for a virtual book discussion with Author, Irene Butter. This event is a part of the Virtual portion of the NAFSA Conference.

Irene Butter spent a part of her childhood in Nazi-controlled concentration camps, where she survived horrible conditions and tragedies. She tells her story on behalf of the six million other Jews who have been permanently silenced. Irene's account celebrates the exercising of empathy for others in even the most inhumane conditions, a relevant message in an age where similar hatreds and discrimination rise once again. Irene has shared the stage with peacemakers such as the Dalai Lama, Desmond Tutu, and Elie Wiesel. She is a well-known peace activist, Holocaust survivor, and Professor Emerita of Public Health at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Irene Butter, Author of "Shores Beyond Shores: From Holocaust to Hope, My True Story" is available where all fine books are sold.
